

RFID STARTER KITS

At IPMAS, we understand that seeing is believing, particularly when it comes to new technologies. We provide a fully-functional RFID starter kit that includes everything you need to begin a small-scale RFID implementation.

RFID KIT HIGHLIGHTS

- State-of-the-Art Northern Apex RFID handheld reader. A versatile device, this handheld is extremely flexible and durable in a variety of industrial, commercial and field service environments.

- HP iPaq handheld computer with integrated wireless LAN and Bluetooth. Also includes our proprietary custom-designed and preconfigured RFID and data management software.

- Software installation CDs to allow your new RFID system to interface with your existing back-end database.

- Extensive assortment of RFID tags, customized to your specific industry and application. Includes adhesive tags, hanging tags, mount-on-metal, and others.

- 60-day free access to our online suite of data management tools. Use our helpful suite of online resources to help turn your data into dollars.

- Storm Case(R) to house and protect your investment. Built to exceed military specifications, these watertight, crushproof, dustproof and airtight cases are guaranteed for life. It will withstand whatever punishments your environment can offer.

